Happy Easter!

This month marks the start of Blue Air's latest routes to Milan and Hamburg and later this year it will launch a twice-weekly flight to Larnaca.

Wizz Air started the first flight outside of London to Craiova in Romania on March 27. This takes the number of weekly departures by Wizz Air up to 20 this summer.

Ryanair's new summer schedule has also started with new routes to Prague, Marrakech, Girona, Spain, and Bari, Italy. This represents an 11% increase in Ryanair traffic and it now flies to a total of 32 destinations.

I am also excited to see Tui's new Ibiza

TUI: Begins its new Ibiza flights this summer departure start this summer, as well as an extra weekly Palma flight.

Last week I visited agents on the Isle of

DINNER: I enjoyed an lovely meal with agents in the Isle of Man

Man with Emily from Titan, and Suz and Amber from USAirtours. It was possibly the wettest day ever! Thank you the agents who joined us. It was fantastic to meet you and your support for Liverpool airport is hugely appreciated.

Last week I enjoyed a fantastic Ladies' Day at Aintree with 30 incentive winners. Gavin Davies, from Global Travel Worldwide in Wrexham was one of our winners! Please email me if you are not signed up to receive trade newsletters and don't forget to join the Facebook page too. Enjoy your Easter.
